5. METHODS OF EDUCATION

In the course of teaching discipline, methods should be used to:

- formation of students' interest in cognitive activity and responsibility for educational work;
- provision of intellectual activity (inductive, deductive , reproductive and exploratory);
- as well as methods related to controlling the student's educational activities.

Among the methods of teaching, in particular, the following are applicable: narrative, explanation, conversation, lecture, demonstration, observation, discussion, research projects, "business games", interactive techniques, preparation and presentation of essays.

6. METHODS OF CONTROL

Students' knowledge and skills acquired during the study course "Cooperation with the EU on Migration, Asylum and Combating Crime» are evaluated according to the rating system.

Forms of current control include: assessment of the implementation of home independent tasks, essays, written and control works performed during practical classes.

A student can receive a maximum of 50 points for oral answers or tests or tests for practical classes.

Unreadiness or unsatisfactory answer (problem solving) are also subject to appropriate evaluation and the student is awarded a "0" mark. The "0" points obtained in this case need to be worked out and the evaluation obtained during the workout is taken into account in determining the average score of current progress .

The form of current control knowledge is to perform a test work. The test work is carried out in writing and consists of theoretical questions and practical tasks and can be estimated at a maximum of 50 points. A student who did not perform a supervisory work or performed it on an unsatisfactory rating is required to perform a control work.

The form of the final control of knowledge and skills in the discipline for students is a score, which is displayed on the basis of current progress and evaluation for control work.

7. DISTRIBUTION OF SCORES TO BE APPLIED FOR STUDENTS

current testing and self-work								current success	modul	sum
T1	T2	T3	T4	T5	T6	T7	T8	T 1-8	T 1-8	100
7	7	6	6	6	6	6	6	50	50

Assessment of student's knowledge is carried out on a 100-point scale

Scale: University, National and ECTS

Score in points	ECTS assessment	Definition	National scale
			Examination score, evaluation from a differentiated score	Credit
90 – 100	A	Excellent	Excellent	Accepted
